TALKED TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE

Congressman Watson Occupied First M. E. Church Pulpit at Richmond.

There Was no Advance Announcement That Congressman Would Speak.

Congressman James E. Watson, of this city, who is in Richmond for a few days, Sunday night occupied the pulpit at the First Methodist church in that city, and delivered an able address on "High Ideals of Citizenship."

Concerning the address, the Richmond Item says:

"Congressman Watson was asked to speak to the congregation on any theme which he might select and he accepted. In a brief address he urged the importance of the young people of America placing their ideals high, and trying to live up to them."

"Every man's life is what he makes it," said Mr. Watson, and this was the central thought of his remarks. The speaker said that the young man who had a lofty ideal of American citizenship and who endeavored to live up to his ideal was bound to make his mark.

The same rule, he said, that applied to individuals applies to nations. So long as a nation stands for justice, it will grow in power and influence, but when greed for wealth takes the place of the higher ideal, national decay is sure to come. The speaker cited the history of Spain as an example of this truth.

The address was directed largely to the young people who were well represented in the congregation. There had been no public announcement that Mr. Watson was to speak, except at the morning service at First church, but a good sized congregation was present.

The Rev. Madison E. Swadener, pastor of the church, spoke at the Methodist church dedication at Centerville Sunday night. Congressman Watson attended services at the Grace M. E. church in the forenoon."

ARE SEEING THE SIGHTS OF PARIS

Commercial Tribune Party Attends Service at La Trinite Church.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune European party, of which Mrs. John M. Stevens, of this city, is a member, arrived in Paris, Sunday morning, according to a special cablegram received in Cincinnati last night. All members of the party are reported well.

On arriving at the French capital at 7 a. m., the party went immediately to the Grand Hotel du Palais d'Orsay, which is surpassed by no other hotel in the city. Following breakfast the party attended at La Trinite church, one of the finest buildings in Paris, and later the visitors were driven in carriages through the Park Monceaux.

The afternoon was spent in visiting the Trocadero, formerly the art palace of the exposition of 1878, the Arc de Triomphe, the Hotel des Invalides and the tomb of Napoleon I.

On Monday, the sightseers were driven through the famous Champs Elysees and visited the Tuileries Gardens. Luncheon was served at the Palais Royal. Carriages then conveyed the party to the Bourse, or Paris Stock Exchange, and from thence through the principal streets in the business district.

The party will remain in Paris today visiting notable places of interest, and tomorrow will return to London via Dieppe.

—Geo. C. Wyatt was in Indianapolis on business today.

CHANCE PRESENTED

For Some Indiana Woman to Marry a New York Man.

Frederick J. Cullum, of Saugerties, N. Y., has carded Indianapolis that he wants to get married. He desires an Indiana woman in fairly good circumstances and who would cheerfully assist him financially in accomplishing something as a genius.

Maids, widows and spinsters under forty will receive consideration. He will sign an agreement not to touch intoxicating liquors, turn to her religion whatever it is, attend her church every Sunday, remove and put on her shoes each morning and night, and will do all in his power to make her happy.

He says he is 28, weighs 140, is in good health and a firm believer in an economical and enterprising life. He says he will marry for love. Money will be a secondary consideration.

WORK TO BE DONE IN THREE MONTHS

On I. & C. Bridge—Stone Crusher to be Set up at Williams Creek.

Contractor Philip Wilk, who with A. L. Stewart, secured the contract of putting in the concrete work for the bridges on the I. & C. Connersville extension, was at Connersville yesterday preparing to begin work on the traction line east of that city. He, with two other men, took dinner at the home of Charles Martin, west of that city, and on the line on which the road will be built. Mr. Wilk states that the contracts specified that certain bridges and culverts must be done within three months.

A large stone crusher will be moved at once to Williams creek and put to work crushing material to be used in the concrete work. Mr. Wilk wants as many teams as he can get to haul stone.

He says it might be impossible to complete the larger contracts within the date specified, but that there would be no unnecessary delay as work would be pushed rapidly from now on. The grading will, it is understood, also begin soon, to be ready for track laying as soon as the culverts and bridges are completed.

MAY GET SPECIAL TO CONNERSVILLE

Large Crowd Will Accompany Ball Team Sunday—Rushville's New Catcher.

Manager Geraghty of the local base ball team is making an effort to secure a special train from the Great Central in order to transport his team and about 400 rooters to Connersville next Sunday. Should he succeed in getting a train, and he thinks he will, it will leave Rushville at 1:15 sharp.

Now that another catcher has been secured to act during Morgan's illness, Pete Garvey has left the team. This new catcher is Hiatt, of the Pendleton team. He has a batting average of 500 and has been secured upon the recommendation of Ed. Wagner, who thinks that he is one of the best catchers in the State. Hiatt is a young man of splendid moral character and he will greatly strengthen the team. Manager Geraghty is bent upon having a bunch of gentlemanly players, who know enough to let liquor alone.

The team meets the All Professionals of Indianapolis in this city Friday, the Elwood team having cancelled. The team's handsome new uniforms are expected here Friday or Saturday.

Rushville will line up Sunday at Connersville as follows: McCord p, Hiatt c, Wagner 1b, Carter 2b, Bush ss, Herold 3b, Kiser lf, Taylor cf, Dugan rf, Campfield sub.

WITTE GIVES HIS VIEWS

Senior Russian Peace Plenipotentiary Speaks Out Frankly.

Russia Can Never Rubmit to Humiliating Terms, He Solemnly Avers.

St. Petersburg, July 18.—M. Witte, the senior Russian peace plenipotentiary, received your correspondent at his villa at Yellagin island. After greetings, which were cordial, the conversation gravitated quickly to the high mission with which the Russian statesman is charged and the disposition of the foreign press to interpret his appointment as an indication that Russia had decided to make peace at any price.

"No, no," said he, straightening up in his chair and speaking slowly and distinctly, as if weighing the value of each word. "In the first place, I have been designated by the emperor as his ambassador extraordinary for a conference with the Japanese plenipotentiaries to ascertain whether it is possible to conclude a treaty of peace. My personal views are of secondary importance, but my ideas are in entire accord with those of my friend, Count Lamsdorff. In serving my emperor I have received precise instructions from his majesty and shall follow them."

"The ultimate decision remains in the hands of the emperor, and it is for him to decide the destinies of Russia. The emperor is the friend of peace and desires peace, but I very much fear that the Japanese terms will be such that we will be unable to reach an accord. Secondly, the world should disabuse its mind of the idea that Russia wants peace at any price. There are two parties in Russia. One favors the continuation of the war to the end—this is a large and influential party. The other, to which I belong, favors peace. I avow it frankly because telling the truth has always been my rule in politics. I was for peace before hostilities broke out. When the war began the situation changed."

ONE HUNDRED SHAKES AN HOUR

Richmond Sun Telephone Says
Congressman Watson is Having a Busy Time.

Congressman and Mrs. James E. Watson are spending a few days in Richmond, says the Sun-Telegram of that city. They are at the Westcott Hotel and will remain for several days. Mr. Watson denies that his visits has any special significance. Apparently it has not. Mr. Watson has been busy, however, since his arrival.

The Telegram estimates that he averaged 100 hand shakes per hour Saturday morning. In company with Richmond politicians he visited the shops, offices and business houses and met the working men, business men and professional men. His smile and his grip have both been "worked overtime." Mr. Watson says he is not "bothering" with politics at this time. "It's too hot," he says, and besides it is intimated that there is no occasion to "bother." Every city and town of the district will be visited during the next few weeks by Mr. Watson.

It is understood that in addition to taking advantage of an opportunity to become acquainted with his constituency, Mr. Watson is feeling the public pulse, in an effort to discern the trend of sentiment of important questions that await the solution of Congress.

—J. Q. Thomas returned today from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Mabel Carpenter, of Wabash. Mrs. Thomas will remain in Wabash for a longer visit.

SHOOTING IN WOODS

The Question is, "What Are
They Shooting at This Time?"

Farmers throughout the country are complaining a great deal about shooting in their woods. What is shot is not known, but a number of gun reports may be heard each evening. Whether the sportsmen are shooting squirrel or not is one thing that no one seems to be sure of. Many farmers, it is stated, will post all of the farms in this vicinity during the shooting season, this fall and thus prolong the lives of the squirrel. If the little animals can be protected for a year or two, they will multiply rapidly, but if all of them are slaughtered this fall they will be very scarce next season.

As yet no sportsmen have been caught shooting squirrels in Rush county, although deputy game wardens have been here, roaming through the woods for this very purpose. As a rule few hunters in Rush county disobey the law.

ON HIS OWN INITIATIVE

Philadelphia's Mayor Advised to Proceed Against Hall Gang.

It is Now Likely That Criminal Prosecution Will be at Once Begun.

Philadelphia, July 18.—As a result of advice from Elihu Root, special counsel for Mayor Weaver, it is probable that the mayor will within a few days institute criminal proceedings against certain persons who are prominent in municipal affairs. Mr. Root advises the mayor that in the face of the refusal of District Attorney John C. Bell to take the initiative in bringing further prosecutions, the mayor should use his right to go before a magistrate and carry the prosecutions as far as the law will permit him. This opinion was the result of a conference held in New York last Friday. Those who participated in the conference between Mr. Root and the mayor were ex-United States Attorney General Wayne Macveagh, who is special counsel for the committee of nine of this city; ex-Judge James Gay Gordon, private counsel for Mayor Weaver, and Julien T. Davis and Joseph S. Auernach of counsel for the committee of seventy.

The purpose of the conference was whether the mayor should take the initiative in further prosecutions, the department refusing to follow Mayor Weaver, and Judge Gordon last week requested that the district attorney, in drawing up indictments against Councilman Frank H. Caven and John W. Hill, former chief of the bureau of filtration, should bring the charge of conspiracy with certain other persons to defraud the city. Councilman Caven is under ball for violating his councilmanic oath in being interested in city contracts, and ex-Chief Hills, under bonds on charges of perjury and falsification of records in connection with the city's filtration plants. At the hearing given the men before magistrates the name of the contracting firm of D. J. McNichol & Co., which is constructing the greater part of the filtration system, was frequently brought in by witnesses. The members of this firm are former Insurance Commissioner Israel W. Durham, the leader of the local Republican organization, State Senator James P. McNichol and his brother, Daniel J. McNichol.

The district attorney in refusing to add the charge of conspiracy to the indictment drawn up against Caven & Hill to initiate criminal proceedings against "certain other persons," said that such charges based on the evidence taken at the Caven and Hill hearings could not under the law be made. He suggested that the mayor take the initiative. Mayor Weaver and Judge Gordon insisted that it was the district attorney's duty to push the prosecutions, they declaring that the evidence in his hands warranted him in so doing. Mr. Bell persisted in his refusal, and the New York conference followed.

CORONER FILES HIS FINDING

Verdict Says Miss Mae McFar-lan Was Accidentally Drowned.

Coroner Bass, of Shelby county has filed his verdict in the drowning of Miss Mae McFarlan, of this city, who while picnicking near Morristown, last Wednesday, waded in water too deep and lost her life as a result. The verdict is as follows:

I, Frank E. Bass, coroner of Shelby county, after viewing the body of Mae McFarlan, hearing the evidence of the witnesses and making other necessary inquiries find that death was due to accidental drowning.

—Mart Spivey has returned from a business trip to Brown county.

AFTER QUACKS

State Medical Board Starts a Crusade on Dishonest Doctors.

From the action of the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination, in revoking the physician's license of Marie Stieler, Evansville, and from conversation with members of the board, it is understood the board has taken up the question of unprofessional practice on the part of any of the physicians over the State, with the result that many more licenses will be revoked within the next few months. Marie Stieler, whose license was revoked, is now serving a three years' term in the Women's Prison, for performing a criminal operation. It is understood the board has information that other physicians over the State have been guilty of similar irregular and unprofessional conduct, and that more individual cases will be taken up at the next meeting, August 15th and 16th.

REV. EDWARDS WILL WED SOON

Minister Well Known Here to Marry Miss Florence Sargent of Seymour.

Rushville people will be considerably interested in the announcement that has just been made of the engagement of Rev. Loren M. Edwards, pastor of the Ninth street M. E. church, at Noblesville, and Miss Florence Sargent, of Seymour. The wedding will be solemnized this fall.

The engagement is of more than passing interest locally for the reason that both Rev. Edwards and his bride have hosts of friends here.

Miss Sargent is the daughter of Rev. J. A. Sargent, pastor of the Seymour M. E. church, and formerly Presiding Elder of the Connersville district. She formerly resided at Connersville. The groom-to-be is the eldest son of Rev. C. C. Edwards, who also served at one time as Presiding Elder of the Connersville district. He has only recently entered ministerial work, having gone to Noblesville last spring, after having finished his college work at the Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey. Previous to completing his education he held a number of minor charges in the Indiana conference. He is rapidly making his way to the front in his chosen field of labor.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

The Warm Weather Record Was Not Broken Today But it Was Hot Enough.

Today was not the hottest day of the season, as generally supposed. The high mark for the mercury in the Windsor thermometer was 94, which was reached at 1 o'clock this afternoon. On the 19th of June 95 was registered, which was the high mark for this summer or last.

It has been two years since there have been such hot days in succession as Saturday, Sunday, Monday and today. The thermometer on Main street registered as high as 102. The heat was intense throughout the day and night.

The maximum temperature Saturday was 93 and Monday the highest point reached was 91.

The indications are that there will be extremely hot weather for several days to come. There is no relief in sight, the weather man predicting continued hot weather for the next twenty-four hours. Much suffering as a result of the heat is reported, but there have been no prostrations in the city up to the present time.

STATES ITS PART OF IT

Brookville American, Involved in Oil Troubles, Censures Day For Acts.

Continual Quarreling Among Stockholders of Oil Company Getting Tiresome.

The Brookville American, of which Ed. J. Hancock, formerly of this paper, is editor, explains the manner in which it became involved in the quarrel among the stockholders of the Buena Vista Oil Stock, Gas and Mineral Company as follows:

"C. C. Day, of Laurel, who in partnership with M. J. O'Connell, holds a large number of oil leases that the people thought, up until a few weeks ago, belonged to the company, seems very much wrought up over a typographical error or two, which appeared in this paper last week, and after calling up the American and getting our assurance that the mistakes, if any, would be corrected, feels himself called upon to wire a letter to the Connersville News in which he modestly suggests that our mistakes were made intentionally—in other words that we lied. Mr. Day's action was not only a breach of good faith, (we having promised a correction), but showed plainly that he was stinging under the blow of having the truth made known. It was not the mistakes that hurt so much as the truth, and it will be hard for Mr. Day to convince the public by his unwarranted attack upon us, that he was justified in his actions toward his fellow stockholders, who had placed implicit confidence in him by selecting him to represent them just a short time before the nature of his dealing with O'Connell came to light. O'Connell, in the same article in the News, talks in the same strain about this paper and intimates too that our statements were intentional falsehoods. So much as O'Connell has come under our observation we have found him to be exceedingly economical with the truth."

He says in his statement that "most or all of the leases held by him and Mr. Day were taken after he had ceased to act as agent for the company," and yet the lease of Mr. Wm. F. Herman bears date of February 7th. The insinuation that this paper was partial up to this time is untrue, we having refused to publish letters, personal in their character, for both sides, but now that we have been assailed in a paper out of the county by the two gentlemen above named, we feel called to answer."

TRESPASS CASE IS APPEALED

Jasper Dudgeon Tried Before
Squire Smart is Not Satisfied.

An appeal from a decision in Squire Smart's court in Walker township in the case of Jasper Dudgeon, who was arrested upon an affidavit filed by Frank Rogers, and charging him with trespass, was filed in the circuit court today.

Rogers claims that he had repeatedly warned Dudgeon to stay away from his land, but that on the 9th day of June, 1905, he caught him upon his place. Dudgeon was tried before Squire Smart on June 27th, found guilty and fined $5 and costs ($13.75). He at once took an appeal to the circuit court which was granted.

Rogers is now mixed up in a divorce suit in the circuit court with his wife, Emma Rogers.

RUSHVILLE, IND., JULY 18, 1905.
POLITELY NON-COMMITTAL

Chairman Goodrich Not Talking Politics in This Temperature.

Indianapolis, July 18.—Chairman Goodrich of the Republican state committee, appeared before the state board of tax commissioners today on behalf of the Hazelton Gas company of Anderson. After he finished his statement there several party leaders attempted to learn something of his political plans, but he was politely non-committal and left them in the dark as to what he intends to do. H. C. Starr of Richmond, chairman of the executive committee of the Republican state committee, was here to appear before the commissioners. He and Goodrich were in consultation for nearly an hour. Judge Rabb of Williamsport, a candidate for nomination for judge of the appellate court, was introduced to the members of the board by Governor Hanly. The board is now hearing from the representatives of telephone and interurban companies.

The Indiana railway commission, which is costing the state about $20,000 a year, is trying to justify its existence and hopes to be able to make a good showing before the next session of the legislature. It has already taken action in a number of complaints that will save the coal operators, dealers and consumers considerable cash by getting the railroads to make a much lower freight rate. It is now trying to bring the railroads to time on a proposition for a fair adjustment of the excess baggage rule. Perhaps the most important case pending is that of a local wholesale grocery firm to compel the Vandalia to charge for domestic hauls a rate in conformity with the interstate commerce commission rate. The rate is now declared to be very high. The decision in the case will probably be regarded as a precedent and the railroads and shippers are much interested. The commission is proceeding in a systematic way toward perfecting an organization to save the shippers and dealers many thousands of dollars annually.

Warden Reid of the state prison, Michigan City, was here today en route home. He called on the governor and other state officials. He was asked jokingly whether or not Governor Hanly's new police board is "holding down the lid" at Michigan City. He said he did not know. "The lid is on at the prison, however," he added, humorously. The warden says he knows nothing of the situation at Michigan City, as he spends all his time at the prison. He is now going ahead with preparations for the execution of Edward Donahue of Benton Harbor, Mich., who was convicted of the murder of Arminter Nortrup of Hobart, Ind., for robbery. It is said that Donahue is still very hopeful that his sentence will be commuted to life imprisonment. Governor Hanly has been asked to take action in that direction, but he has not indicated what he will do.

The question of whether or not too much civilization pays has been raised at the statehouse on account of the report of Secretary Hurty of the state board of health for June, which shows that Brown county, which is without railroads and other so-called "civilizing" agents, had the lowest death rate of any county in Indiana, the rate being 3.7, while the city of Terre Haute, noted for many years as a wide-open town, had the largest death rate, the rate there being 18.6. The city death rate was 2.1 higher than the rate for the entire state. There were eleven murders and twenty-one suicides in the state during the month.

THE THIRD PARTY
Will Put a Ticket in the Field in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, July 18.—The Prohibitionists will put a city ticket in the field for the coming municipal campaign. A convention will be held in the criminal courtroom the night of July 25 to make the nominations. It is very probable that George Hitz, who ran as the independent Prohibitionist candidate for mayor two years ago, receiving nearly 6,000 votes, will be renominated. Charles A. Bookwalter, Republican candidate for mayor, is spending the summer vacation at Lake Wauwassee and will probably not open his campaign before the latter part of next month. Mayor Holtzman is an active candidate, although he has not said so. One of his friends pointed out today that Holtzman has never been defeated here as a candidate.

A WAY OUT OF IT
Ryan Now Has a Plan to Lead Equitable Out of Woods.

New York, July 18.—From a circular of the Equitable Life Assurance Society it is learned that Thomas F. Ryan, who recently purchased the stock holdings of James H. Hyde, has made an agreement with the three trustees of the Ryan holdings, and the newly elected directors to sell the stock he purchased back to the Equitable society.

This sale is to be made as soon as possible, it is stated, and Mr. Ryan has agreed to turn it in to the society, thus thoroughly mutualizing it, for the same sum he paid for it, $2,500,000, plus 4 per cent interest, between the dates of his purchase and the sale.
It was stated that a number of the newly chosen directors, those selected by Grover Cleveland, Judge Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, the trustees, accepted posts in the directorate only after they had been assured most emphatically that such an agreement was in view and that such an agreement existed between Mr. Ryan and the three trustees.

He Photographed the Forts.
Kingston, Jamaica, July 18.—Dr. Franklin Clarke, an American, has been arrested here for breach of the official secret service act. Some days ago Dr. Clarke was discovered taking photographs of the forts protecting Port Royal and Kingston. The police found the photographs on him. The prisoner, who is a graduate of Harvard, has been a resident here for four months.

General Blackmar's Funeral.
Boston, Mass., July 18.—While all the arrangements for the funeral of General Blackmar have not been completed, it is probable it will be held here next Sunday. The board of alderman adopted resolutions and as a mark of respect adjourned. General Blackmar was a member of the city government in 1872 and 1873.

Two Men Slain in Church.
Mt. Sterling, Ky., July 18.—News has been received here of a desperate fight on Fraley creek, Lee county, in which John Muller of Breathitt county, shot and killed James Crees and J. M. Thomas. The shooting occurred at a church during services. Muller was arrested and lodged in jail at Beattyville.

Indiana Man Elected.
Cleveland, O., July 18.—At last night's session of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers, A. L. Faulkner of Dunkirk, Ind., was elected president by 119 votes to 53 for David Winters.

A BLOODY RECORD

Long List of Murders in a Vigo County Mining Town.

ATTRIBUTED TO SALOON

Within a Narrow Limit Eight Murders Have Been Committed During Past Eighteen Months.

Usually These Tragedies Have Occurred in Saloons--the Latest Case.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 18.—Another murder has been added to the long list in the Burnett and Grant mining neighborhood, near this city. Richard Roberts, a negro miner, shot and killed an old negro, whose identity is a matter of doubt. The shooting occurred in Perry Johnson's saloon, where the bartender, William Turpin, recently killed Marion Bryant. Within a few hundred feet of this saloon eight murders have been committed within eighteen months. In the mining settlements of Grant, Burnett and Ehrendale there have been a dozen tragedies in the last few years, usually in saloons. The man killed by Roberts was bemoaning the loss of a $10 bill, and the shooting followed without ground of self-defense. Roberts is still at large.

WAITING THE HOUR OF DEATH

Edward Donahue, Convicted of Murder Hopeful of Interference.

Michigan City, Ind., July 18.—Unless Governor Hanly should interfere Edward Donahue, convicted of the murder of Arminter Nortrup of Benton Harbor, Mich., near Hobart, this state, will be executed in the state prison early Friday morning of this week. Donahue is still hopeful that something will save him from the gallows. He believes that the governor will commute his sentence because he was convicted on circumstantial evidence. The warden has received no intimation that the governor will interfere, and he is going ahead with the arrangements for the execution. Donahue shows no signs of weakening. He eats regularly with undoubted relish, and sleeps well. Those who are in close touch with him feel confident that he will not break down in his last hours and make a confession, but they expect to see him go to his death with protestations of innocence. Save for occasional spells of restlessness, he shows remarkable composure. They have never believed that he was insane, nor even slightly affected mentally.

Died in Effort to Save Hog.

Frankfort, Ind., July 18.—Andrew Swadner, fifty years of age, a well-known resident of the city, was instantly killed by a Monon passenger train while endeavoring to save a valuable hog from being run over. Mr. Swadner heard the approaching train and saw the hog between the rails. He ran after the beast, which, with customary perverseness, headed down the track, with the train rapidly approaching from the rear. Mr. Swadner looked back twice but he failed to realize the nearness or swiftness of the train, and the third time he glanced back he was struck and killed.

Trolley Cars Come Together.

Hartford City, Ind., July 18.—A passenger car and work car crashed into each other on a curve on the Muncie, Hartford City & Fort Wayne interurban, two miles north of this city. In Memoriam.

Alice Mae McFarlan, daughter and only child of Benjamin L. and Susan E. McFarlan, was born in Orange township, Rush county, Indiana, Nov. 8th, 1867. Here nurtured by good parents, she grew up amid the freedom of the country and the wealth of nature, and came to a strong, beautiful womanhood. She attended school near her home, and later at Greensburg and Danville.

When twenty-two years of age she was baptized at the same time with her father and mother into the life and service and hope of the gospel.

In 1893 the family came to Rushville to make their home. Since that time Mae has grown into the hearts of the people as few other young people have done. At the heart of her life was genuineness, the essence of real goodness. This sincerity of thought and motive made her a most lovable and companionable girl everywhere.

In the home, where she will be most sorely missed, she was an ideal daughter. She was always obedient and dutiful to her parents. The love bestowed upon her by affectionate parents was returned by her with most beautiful regard for their wishes.

As a companion in the different associations wherein she moved, Mae was thoughtful and unselfish, quiet but full of life, unassuming but active, true to every consideration of friendship, and loyal to every interest which claimed her support. She was a woman of culture, a culture not of outward refinement, which is too often mixed with much that is compromising and false, but a culture which sprang out of a true heart, a gentleness of manner and attractiveness of person which is possible only when the heart is true.

The greatest glory of Mae's life was that she never forgot that she was a Christian, that she belonged to Jesus Christ. How poor and miserable are the accomplishments and attainments of a passing world compared with a personal knowledge of Christ and loyalty to his will. Her church membership was not only simply a matter of form, it was her first and chief concern. No vain nor false excuse kept her from the meetings of the church and the ordinances of the Lord's house, nor was her attendance prefatory and formal. She could honestly sing "I love Thy kingdom, Lord, The house of Thine abode."

One cannot help reflecting how much better it is to have the beauty of holiness than to have the life occupied with vain and useless things.

Mae's religious nature found expression in many quiet, kindly deeds which were not known to all. Many a needy person has been ministered to by her hand and many a life has been cheered by her, whom she helped in the name of Him whom she served. She did the duties that came to her in a quiet, unobtrusive life, and the Lord of life and glory will give her a sphere fitted to her redeemed spirit in His eternal kingdom.

From the meetings of the church, from her Sunday school class, from the Christian Endeavor prayer meetings, from the Young Ladies' Mission Circle, from the several organizations of which she was a member, from sweet and intimate personal companionships, most of all from the home of which she was the center and light, she will be missed. But God enriches and adorns this poor world of ours with just such lives as hers, and He transplants them where beauty never fades, where eyes are never dimmed with tears, and where the joy of the Lord is forever the feast of the soul.

Among the remarks made by Rev. W. W. Sniff at the funeral service of Miss Mae McFarlan, was quoted the following and most appropriate poem by Whittier.

"Another hand is beckoning us,
Another call is given;
And glows once more with angel steps
The path which reaches Heaven.

Our young and gentle friend, whose smile

Made brighter summer hours,
From out the loving ties of life,
Has left us like the flowers.

No paling of the cheekbloom
Forewarned us of decay;
No shadow from the silent land
Fell round our sister's way.

The light of her young life went down,
As sinks behind the hill
The glory of a setting star,—
Clear, suddenly and still.

As pure and sweet, her fair brow seemed
Eternal as the sky;
And like the brook's low song, her voice—

A sound which could not die.
The blessing of her quiet life
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thoughts, where her footsteps pressed
Like fairy blossoms grew.

Sweet promptings unto kindest deeds
Were in her very look;
We read her face, as one who reads
A true and holy book.

The measure of a blessed hymn,
To which our hearts could move;
The breathing of an inward psalm,
A canticle of love.

We miss her in the place of prayer,
And by the hearth-fire's light;
In vain we pause with eager hearts
To hear her sweet 'Good-night.'

There seems a shadow on the day,
Her smile no longer cheers;
A dimness on the stars of night,
Like eyes that look through tears.

Alone unto our Father's will
One thought hath reconciled;
That He whose love exceedeth ours
Hath taken home his child.

Fold her, O Father! in Thine arms
And let her henceforth be
A messenger of love between
Our human hearts and Thee.

Still let her mild rebuking stand
Between us and the wrong,
And her dear memory serve to make
Our faith in goodness strong.

And grant that she, who, trembling,
here
Distrusted all her powers,
May welcome to her holier home
The well-beloved of ours."

Talented Clowns With Wallace

The Great Wallace Shows presents along with their comedy department this year the following prominent jesters, or commonly called "clowns": Lou Moore, Jack Corelli, James and Tom King, James Savoy, Al Singer, Harry Hodge, Arthur Jarvis, Leonard Jarvis, Wm. Vesta, Frank Maynard, Al Wilson, Tommie Hart, Fred Hart, Harry Shiffuoleth, Fred Delmond; along with these funny chaps others also assist them in their comical antics.

When intermingling with citizens on the street none of them would be suspected of wearing loose robes of a fool, but when they are in the ring with their make-ups on, they laugh and the crowd laughs with them. A jolly lot, and they have certainly helped to unload at least temporarily the cares from the minds of thousands of people.

Clowning is an art of itself, the best clowns are born—not made. The fun-making department of the Great Wallace Show is fully up to the high standard of its other departments, in fact many a person will testify to the statement that the clowns with this show are worth the price of admission. Their work is appreciated as the present strenuous life of most people causes them to relish a little pure nonsense now and then.

Everything in all departments of the Greater Wallace Shows this year is positively new, refreshing, up-to-date and worthy.

Wallace comes Tuesday, July 25th to Rushville.

NIAGARA

There has been a great deal written in the past few months, of the probable effect the granting of so many rights to the waters of Niagara Falls for commercial purposes will have on the volume of water flowing over the falls, and whether the use of the waters of Niagara so extensively in generating power to be distributed over the entire state of New York, will to any extent mar the beauty and grandeur of this, the most wonderful work of nature. This controversy has renewed in those who have seen the Falls innumerable times, a desire to go back once more and see this, the grandest of all natural wonders of the world. No description can ever prepare those who have never seen Niagara for the awe-inspiring magnificence of this mighty cataract. No better opportunity will ever be offered the people to visit the Falls than presented by the Lake Erie & Western Railroad on their annual excursion Thursday, August 3rd. They are the pioneers in this business and offer an extremely low rate on this occasion. Each train will be under the supervision of men who have had years of experience, and these gentlemen will accompany the trains through the Falls, which will insure the passengers every comfort.

A great many people think the mail carriers have a "snap," but that is a mistake. The average mail carrier walks from 20 to 30 miles every day, and in all kinds of weather, besides carrying a heavy load of mail.

Farmers report that the most of the clover hay has been taken care of, but the crop of timothy that is still in the field is very large. They say that frequent rains make it very difficult to cut the hay and allow it to cure in the fields. The next ten days, however, will see the cutting of the greater portion of the crop of timothy.

Shelbyville Democrat, Monday: Dr. Sexton and Frank Mull and their wives, of Rushville, intended to spend last evening in this city, the guests of J. G. DePrez and family and other friends. They made the trip in their autos and when some distance from Shelbyville one of the machines lost a tire and was pulled in by the other. The party did not arrive until 10:30 Sunday night. After spending an hour putting on a new tire, the party left immediately for home.

The managers of the Rushville Concert Band have been interviewing some of the down town merchants with a view toward learning whether or not they desired open air concerts on the court house lawn one evening each week. So far they have met with very little encouragement. We understand that the band makes a very liberal offer. The merchants should not lose an opportunity like it in order to bring the people out, and live up the town a little. They would no doubt be repaid in trade.

Rushville citizens should remember that we have one of the best towns in the State when it comes to first class stores and as everybody should want to see improvement go right on do your trading in Rushville. It is the best place to trade. A merchant cannot be expected to get the finest line of stock in the market when the people who buy high grade articles go to the larger cities whenever they have a big bill of goods to purchase. Don't run away when you can find as good at home as you can get any place else in the United States. It is important that the home merchant get the benefit of trying to please his patrons. Give him a chance. He needs the money.

It is said that in one town in this State the other day, the farmers who wanted harvest hands came upon fifty loafers who admitted that they were out of a job, but refused to go into the harvest field, although they were offered $35 a week and board. It is said that the demand for labor was never greater; perhaps never so great, but at the same time there are fifty able bodied men in one town who are doubtless lifting up their voices in the chorus of malcontents who are complaining about a lack of opportunity in this land. There never was and there never will be what they call opportunity in this land or any other land for this class of people.
